RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Boston, Mass. -- Mr. Howard J. Osborn, Director of Security, Central Intelligence Agency, Langley, Virginia, will be graduated December 10 from the 48th session of the Advanced Management Program held at the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration. This session began September 12, 1965.

Coming from every continent, 160 business executives, government and military leaders participated in the 13-week program preparing mature administrators to assume the responsibilities of top management in the business or public organizations that sponsored them. The men represented 25 states, Washington, D.C., Canada, and 18 overseas countries.

Since its inception in 1943, almost 6,000 men and women have participated in the AMP, the nation's oldest senior management development program conducted by a university.
